

Where can I access the online resources?

You can directly access the resources while inside any school, library or academic institution in SD or at home with a SDLN member library card or SD State Library card. Click on Online Resources to see the list of resources.

The screenshot shows the South Dakota State Library website homepage. The header includes the library logo and name. The main navigation bar has links for SDLN Home, Services, Online Resources, Programs, and About SDLN. A sidebar on the left contains links for Braille & Talking Book, Children & Youth Services, Library Development, Login to your ECardPlus, Search Library Catalog, and Research. The main content area features a 'Latest News' section with a 'February Cornerstone' article, an 'Upcoming Events' section with 'Health Reference Meetings' and a 'RACE webinar: Public Library Survey', and a 'Library usage data now available' section. There are also promotional tiles for 'Jumpstart 2011', 'Children's Book Awards', 'YARP Book Awards', 'OverDrive is Coming!', 'Book Bags', and 'South Dakota State Library ECards'.

What is my password for at home access?

Your password is your LAST NAME.

Barcode:	<input type="text"/>
Password:	<input type="text"/>
<input type="button" value="Submit"/> <input type="button" value="Cancel"/>

What can I find in the electronic resources?

Full text magazines, South Dakota newspapers, genealogy information, practice tests, online books and more.

How do I get a library card?

Ask your librarian if your library is a member of SDLN or request a SD State Library library card by clicking on "South Dakota State Library ECards" on the SD State Library homepage (<http://library.sd.gov>)

Where do I find handouts for the specific resources to share with my coworkers?

Color and black-and-white handouts for the resources discussed today are available by clicking the  on the Online Resources list.

<http://library.sd.gov>